Our Fundamental Beliefs:

1. Talent is Overrated. Send us only players with a burning desire to improve, as opposed to the self-centered athlete, who, although blessed with great talent, displays a constant lack of commitment, much to the never ending torment of her coach. The basketball world is full of unfulfilled potential. Poorly motivated athletes will not flourish, nor find benefit in our system.

2. Practice Makes not Perfect, but Permanent. Solid fundamentals are paramount to any basketball self-improvement program. We must first teach a player the proper way to execute basic basketball fundamental skills. Without this fundamental base, practice, in reality, becomes a detriment, as repetition enforces poor skill development.

3. You Take only What You Give, So Give All You Have. We live in a cause-and-effect world. Basketball is a lot like life, you get out of it what you put in. We cannot improve players in a short four-day camp. What we can do is provide a time-proven and innovative structured program for athletes to follow. Those who follow our program will, in due time, show marked and noticeable improvement as a basketball player.

Words We Live By:

"So many of our dreams at first seem impossible, then they seem improbable, and then, when we summon the will, they soon become inevitable."

– Christopher Reeve, from speech at Democratic National Convention, August 1996

"By nature, men are nearly alike, by practice, they get to be wide apart."

– Confucius, (551 BC – 479 BC)
The Confucian Analects

"Energy and persistence conquer all things."

– Benjamin Franklin (1706 – 1790)

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill. Great works are performed not by strength, but perserverance."

– Samuel Johnson (1709 – 1784)

Camp Curriculum

If you have the opportunity to talk to players who have been through Jackie's camps, they will tell you her's is like no other camp — and it is the best camp experience they have ever had. You will spend 12 hours a day either on the court or in the classroom. The pace will be fast. You will learn to use your dribble, your teammates, your opponents and your own "sense of where you are" to create space, or shooting openings. We will teach you ball handling and shooting workouts that are taught in sequential order and provide the building blocks of Jackie's system. You will learn new and innovative ideas about the "great equalizer:" physical strength and conditioning. You will learn not only how — but why— which will help you become a team leader who is "a coach on the floor." You will become a better teammate and a better person. In the end, you will walk out of camp empowered with the skills to maximize, to the fullest, a once in a lifetime opportunity; the privilege of playing college basketball.

Level II Camps

We will hold five Level I camps this summer and one Level II camp. The Level II camp will be in Philadelphia, PA from July 31–August 2. To attend this camp, an athlete must have attended one of the Level I camps, either this summer or last. Level II camps will build on what is taught at the Level I camps. Special emphasis will be placed upon Physical Conditioning, Basketball IQ, and the progression of taking drills learned at the Level I camp to a higher level of intensity and mastery.

Coaches School

Due to many requests, we have set up a Coaches School. Coaches are welcome to attend any 4-day session for a fee of $150. You will be provided with a binder explaining in detail the drills, their progression and the thought behind the teaching of each skill.

Jackie Stiles & Dave Almany

Jacqueline Marie Stiles was born in Kansas City, Kansas on December 21, 1978 to parents Pat and Pam Stiles and is the oldest of four children. Jackie grew up in Claflin Kansas and attended Claflin High School. Jackie's athletic accomplishments are numerous and diverse but she is known best for her endeavors on the basketball court. As a junior in high school she scored 61 points in 17 minutes of the opening game of the season.

By the end of senior year she became the leading scorer for boys and girls in Kansas High School history. Jackie is the state record holder with 71 points in one game. During her four years of high school she won a state record 14 gold medals in track, including the first runner to win the 400, 800, 1600 and 3200 meters in one day. She placed in the top three in state cross country all four years. This well rounded athlete also played tennis for the Claflin Wildcats and placed 2nd in state all three seasons.

At Missouri State, she was known for her spinning jump shots, driving lay ups and 3-pointers. She is the all time leading scorer in NCAA division one basketball history with 3,393 points. She had a compelling competitive spirit and stop-on-a-dime quickness. What she brought to the court was incredible jump shots and moves that defied defenses designed specifically to stop her. Her career at MSU culminated in the 2001 NCAA Tournament where she led the Lady Bears to a final four appearance. In the sweet-sixteen game she scored 41 points in an 81-71 shocker against top-ranked Duke. Jackie remains the only woman to score more than 1,000 points in a single season. In her college career she procured a number of outstanding awards including: Three time Missouri Valley Player of the year, won the Wade Trophy for best female basketball player in the nation, and the Broderick Cup for college women athlete of the year in 2001. She was named to the Verizon Academic All American First Team and was elected a Kodak First Team All American.

In the 2001 WNBA draft Jackie was picked fourth by the Portland Fire. She captured the rookie of the year title that summer with a scoring average of 14.9 points. She was named to the 2001 WNBA All-Star team and was picked WNBA Player of the week averaging 22 points on 54% shooting. Jackie played briefly in the Australian league before retiring in 2006 due to injuries incurred from her legendary training regimen. Jackie's career was one that every player dreams of and she has dedicated herself to helping young athletes around the country achieve their dreams.

Dave Almany began the Licking Summer Camps in 1993. He has overseen their growth for the past seventeen years. Almany spent fifteen years as a Head Boys Basketball Coach in Monroe City, MO, El Dorado, KS and Licking, MO. His teams appeared in four state final fours and compiled a win loss record of 286-97. He also served as a building principal for Licking High School and Pocahontas, AR High School. He is currently the Head Men's and Women's cross country and track coach at Fontbonne University in St. Louis, MO.
